

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Strike the period?

2 MR. HAILE: No, just put period, and then a
3 sentence, insert the sentence, No person shall by law be
4 discriminated against because of religion, race or color.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Where?

6 MR. HAILE: No person shall by law be dis-
7 criminated against because of religion, race or color.

8 DR. JENKINS: As a matter of fact, the first
9 clause could be deleted since it is in the original state-
10 ment. Then that would read, No person shall by law be 11 subjected to segregation or discrimination.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: I am confused. Let me get 13 Mr. Haile's language, and we will find out if it is 14 suitable. No person shall by law be discriminated
15 against because of --

16 MR. HAILE: -- religion, race or color. That
17 sentence should be inserted between the two sentences
18 now contained in Section 4.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Jenkins, is that acceptable
20 to you?

21 DR. JENKINS: Yes, in this context.
